

Chartering

Century Marine Services Ltd represents the interests of both Owners and Charterers, and has the knowledge and contacts to provide you with the right type of vessel for your requirements. We advise and negotiate short or long-term shipping contracts for time and bareboat charters.

If you have a charter or tender requirement, or have a vessel open for charter, please complete the online form , providing as much detail as possible, or contact us direct.