

Century Marine Services Ltd

Century Marine Services Limited is an International Shipbroking company engaged in the sale and purchase and valuation of tugs, barges, offshore and all other specialist vessels. The company was formed in 2001 and is managed by Steve Dougal who is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Shipbrokers.

The company acts for many owners/operators and charterers of tugs, barges, utility vessels and offshore vessels on a normal or an exclusive brokerage basis. The company also acts as valuers for a number of tug and offshore companies around the world as well as financial, insurance and legal institutions.

Personnel are as follows:

{tab=STEVE DOUGAL, FICS}

Specialises in tugs, barges and offshore vessels. After a successful seagoing career, Steve has two decades experience in shipbroking. Prior to setting up Century Marine Services he worked for several broking houses and has been involved in the execution of hundreds of chartering operations and sale transactions. Such experience is invaluable in offering our clients the professional and personal service they expect. Outside of shipbroking, Steve is also an ordained Priest in the Church of England.

{tab=JEFF WOODHEAD}

Specialises in offshore and construction vessels. Well respected within the industry. After a seagoing career on cargo and offshore vessels, Jeff has over 30 years of experience in sale and purchase/valuations.

{tab=TONY RUSSELL-WHITE}

Tony has a wealth of knowledge and experience based on his many years involvement in the tug and offshore industries. He started work as a junior clerk with London Tugs and moved on to join Samuel Stewart & Co. London Ltd with whom he trained as a towage and salvage broker. With the advent of North Sea oil and gas he seized on the opportunity to form Stewart Offshore Services. Tony emigrated to Australia in 1989 where he was a founding partner of Western Offshore Technology (Wotech). More recently he has returned to the U.K.

{tab=MELANIE TIERNEY}

Handles the company's administration and maintains our extensive ships database. 10 years experience in the marine industry, previously working for The ABR Company Ltd (International Tug & Salvage magazine, ITS Conventions).
